Mission Study Classes Held At Liberty Baptist

Mission Study Classes will be held for the Junior Organizations for Liberty Baptist Church on both Monday and Tuesday of next week.

The Junior Girl's Auxiliary and the Mike Lopez Royal Ambassadors will study the book, Koji of Japan, by Kay Sanderson Culpeper, on Monday, Nov. 19, beginning at 3:45. Dinner will be served in the social hall following the class, by the Hazel Moon, Eva Sanders and Emma Hancock Circles. The counselors for this group are Mrs. Ila Wooldridge, Mrs. Ray Ferguson and Mrs. Robert Baumgardner.

On Tuesday night, Nov. 20, beginning at 6:00 o'clock with a supper, the Intermediate Elizabeth Gale Girl's Auxiliary and the Everett Gill Royal Ambassadors will study the book, The Tarnished Helmet, by Lois Whaley. Mrs. Charles Addington, of Vera, will be the guest teacher. The dinner will be served by Caroline Smith and the Lizzie Cawthorn Circles. Counselors for this group are Mrs. Robert Hubbard and Mr. Ray Ferguson.

DEATHS

MR. D. E. TORRENCE

Mr. David Eugene Torrence, 75, died suddenly at 12:30 A. M. Sunday, at his home on Route 2, Appomattox. He had been in declining health for several years. A native of Appomattox County, he was the son of the late Alfred Earl and Mary Coleman Torrence.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hattie Drinkard Torrence; a daughter, Mrs. Russell Conner, of Appomattox; four sons: John W. and Charles D. Torrence, both of Appomattox; F. Allen Torrence, Spout Spring, and Alfred D. Torrence, of Tazewell.

Also surviving are four sisters: Mrs. W. D. Woodson, of Amherst; Mrs. C. E. Agee, of Farmville; Mrs. F. A. O'Brien and Mrs. R. W. Morris, both of Appomattox; and three brothers: I. E. Torrence, of Lynchburg; A. B. Torrence, of Elkton, and J. L. Torrence, of Appomattox. Also by nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 2:00 P. M. from Liberty Baptist Church, of which he was a prominent member. Services were conducted by Dr. C. A. Collins, Jr., pastor. Organ selections were provided by Mrs. Joyce Vaughan. Pallbearers were: R. W. Stanley, William Hubbard, J. E. Jamerson, Jennings Conner, Ernest Smith and George Abbitt Jr. Burial was in the Drinkard family cemetery.

Colored Dots

A large crowd attended the final program of the baby contest sponsored by the choir of the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday at 3 P. M. Miss Mattie Fleshman was sponsor of the program. The pastor of the church delivered a special sermon and music was furnished by the Appomattox Trumpteers gospel singers. The following babies reported the following amounts: Michael Kent Hancock, $55.45; Marie Antionette Booker, $35.05; Charles Edwin Forest, $30.75; Gwendolyn Robinson, $17.28; Linda Marshall, $12.00; and Herma Evetta Fleshman, $8.75. A grand total including the general offering was $169.27. Prizes were presented to each baby. Pictures were made of the babies.

The general public is invited to attend regular preaching services at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday at the regular preaching hour and at the 8 P. M. service. The Appomattox gospel Trumpteers will render a special musical program, and the Rev. Hugh C. Long, of Lynchburg will be the guest speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

A large crowd attended the regular preaching service at the First Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. N. R. Jordan, delivered a special message. Baptizing services followed the regular morning service for the Mount Airy Baptist Church. The Rev. Jordan officiated. The Mount Airy choir rendered special music. The offering for the day was very good.

Impressive services were held at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special sermon. The church choir rendered special music. The offering for the day was unusually good.

Plans are near completion for the harvest rally sponsored by the Men's Club of the Canaan Baptist Church on the fourth Sunday evening in this month at 7:30. The Rev. Charlie Franklin, of Pamplin, will be the guest speaker. Music will be furnished by the local Gospel Trumpteers.

A large crowd attended the old-fashioned wedding at the Mount Airy Baptist Church last Sunday evening at 7:30. The program was given for the benefit of the church.

An offering of $47.00 was raised. Rev. R. Q. Lawing will be guest minister at the Grace Baptist Church in Brookneal on Wednesday evening, in a revival program.
